

Copyright Infringement

Estimated time to complete: 30 min.

Course Description

SafeColleges' Copyright Infringement course is designed to help you - the educator - understand how copyright law applies to materials you want to copy or download for use in your classes. This course is not designed for student use. The course walks through the basics about copyright laws and schools. Next, it explores smart practices involving three common categories of copyrighted materials used for educational purposes.

Common Themes

This course reviews the following topics related to copyright infringement:

- Basic knowledge about copyright laws
- Print and Audio Materials
- Visual and Multimedia Materials
- The Internet and Digital Media

Author

Dr. William C. Stepien is a teacher of 18 years and a Media Specialist at St. Charles North High School in St. Charles, Illinois. He is a veteran developer and instructor of staff development courses for teachers, and is a co-author of The Internet and Problem-Based Learning and "Pulling the Cat's Tail in Social Studies and History Classrooms" in the Handbook of Secondary Gifted Education. William holds an Ed. D. in Instructional Technology from Northern Illinois University.

Training Environments

SafeColleges is ideal for a blended learning environment, complementing in-service or video training, or as a stand-alone training course. The SafeColleges approach engages the learner in an e-learning environment while a Compliance Management System automatically tracks his/her progress through the courses. This assists the campus administrator or training coordinator in demonstrating compliance.
