

Diversity Awareness & Appreciation

Estimated Time to Complete: 20 minutes

Course Description

SafeColleges' Diversity Awareness & Appreciation course introduces this highly relevant topic. The goals of the course are to provide staff with an awareness of how a diverse workforce strengthens a school or district; equip staff to recognize and respond to incidents of harassment, bigotry, and prejudice; and to appreciate the rich benefits of a diverse, multicultural workforce in the school environment.

Common Themes

- Workforces are growing more diverse, necessitating that workforces be trained in diversity appreciation and awareness.
- Ignorance, bigotry, discrimination, and prejudice can be personally destructive as well as contribute to a hostile work environment.
- Diverse workforces are to be celebrated and should be among the greatest strengths of an organization.
- Staff can recognize and respond constructively to incidents of harassment, prejudice, discrimination, or bigotry.

Authors

Dr. JoLynn Carney is a faculty member in the Department of Counseling at Penn State University and a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor. Her research and publications focus on the areas of conflict resolution, youth violence, peer-on-peer abuse, and adolescent suicide. Dr. Richard Hazler is a Professor of Counselor Education at Penn State University. He is particularly well known for his work in the areas of bullying, peer-on-peer abuse, and youth violence.

Training Environments

SafeColleges is ideal for a blended learning environment, complementing in-service or video training, or as a stand-alone training course. The SafeColleges approach engages the learner in an e-learning environment; while a Compliance Management System automatically tracks his/her progress through the courses. This assists the campus administrator or training coordinator in demonstrating compliance.
